It was to protect her pretty young daughter, declares Mme. Marie Augustine Lebaudy, that she slew Westbury's "Emperor of Sahara."

of Sahara," was found by detectives employed by the Nassau county authorities and will appear before the grand jury. Instead of helping the prosecution, as first thought, his story, it was learned from an authoritative source, will be of tremendous advantage to the defense.

Ordered Out By Lebaudy.

Contrary to first reports Rosenfeld will tell the grand jury that it was Lebaudy and not Mrs. Lebaudy who ordered him out of the house just before the murder.

In order to ascertain what really had occurred at the lodge, when Lebaudy and the boy entered, District Attorney Weeks sent one of his detectives to Manhattan and had Rosenfeld brought here for questioning.

To Detective Reilly, of the district attorney's staff, the messenger boy said he was not put out by Mrs. Lebaudy, as originally quoted, but that he fled from the place fearing he might be injured by Lebaudy himself. He said he had every reason to believe that his own life was in danger and he ran away.

Rosenfeld's story is of vital importance in that it shatters the prosecution's chance of showing Mrs. Lebaudy took precautions that there should be no witness to a premeditated deed. It tends to bear out the theory that Lebaudy himself was bent upon the murder of his wife, and perhaps his daughter, and wanted no witness present.

It is known that District Attorney Weeks was surprised when he was informed the messenger boy's statement would aid the case of the defense. He had been led to believe that this young man might materially help the State. Mr. Weeks would not comment on the development, but did say he would have the boy tell his story to the grand jury.

Mme. Lebaudy Better.

The condition of Mme. Lebaudy was much better today, according to Dr. Paul T. Ferrer. Dr. Ferrer said: "Mrs. Lebaudy is somewhat brighter. She shows interest in two pet monkeys given to her daughter, Jacqueline, a couple of years ago by Mrs. Belmont, of Hempstead. One of these was recently named 'General Foch' by Jacqueline. The girl had the monkeys in her mother's room during the afternoon, and they played about the place. The animals are very tame and have been daily playmates of Jacqueline since she received them."

The Rev. Dr. W. F. McGinness, of St. Bridget's Roman Catholic Church, was a visitor at "The Lodge" last night. Others also called.

An investigation designed to find out just where the revolver found in the inside overcoat pocket of Jacques Lebaudy on the night he was shot to death by his wife came from has been begun by the Nassau county authorities.

PRINCESS ADELGONDE ON THRONE OF LUXEMBURG

PARIS, Jan. 16.—Princess Charlotte Adelgonde has taken the oath as grand duchess of Luxembourg, succeeding her sister, who has abdicated, says an official communication to the French government. The ceremony took place yesterday afternoon.

The new grand duchess is the eldest of the five sisters of former Grand Duchess Marie Adelaide. She was born January 23, 1896, and is eighteen months older than the former grand duchess.

PROBE CAUSE OF MOLASSES BLAST

BOSTON, Jan. 16.—The inquiry here today has failed to reveal a probable cause for the explosion yesterday of the 2,000,000 gallon tank of molasses that resulted in death to eleven and injury to fifty persons. The property loss was heavy.

Officers of the Purify Distilling Company, which owned the tank, today declared they believed it probable that the tank had been blown up from the outside by enemies of the United States "who knew that we were engaged during the war in the manufacture of alcohol, which was used in the making of munitions."

The first theory held was that the tank exploded as a result of gas caused by fermentation of the molasses. Today it was shown that molasses ferments only in exceedingly warm weather. There were flues in the top of the tank to release gas had it formed.

A muffled roar was the first warning that the tank had exploded. The big receptacle then broke into two great segments of steel which were impelled in opposite directions.

Two million gallons of molasses rushed in a mighty stream over the streets, wrecking several small buildings and converting them into a sticky mass.

In a city building near by a group of city employees were eating their lunch. The building was demolished and several persons were killed or wounded.

A fire station was crushed. Three firemen were killed when they were buried in the ruins.

A small dwelling on a hill near by slid into the street apparently sucked down by the receding molasses. A woman was thrown through a window and killed.

Today firemen are throwing streams of water on the sticky mass, and it is slowly being drained into the harbor. Red Cross workers, women and girls, wearing short skirts and puttees, are wading about in the molasses distributing hot coffee and doughnuts to the firemen, policemen, soldiers and sailors.

PACKERS ASK VOICE SAYS THOUSANDS ARE OUT OF JOBS

Friends of packers in Congress are demanding a hearing for their side. Senate and House committees are now busy investigating the merits of Government ownership or operation of packing plants and stockyards. But thus far only witnesses hostile to the packers have been heard, including William B. Colver, chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, and Francis J. Heney, formerly special counsel for the commission.

Some Congressmen and Senators are quoted around the Capitol as demanding that the packers be given a chance to put their side of the case before the committees now holding hearings.

It is probable that representatives of the "big five" will follow Heney before the Senate committee.

NUXATED IRON

"Say, Doctor, This Prescription Works Like Magic!"

Physician Says Nuxated Iron Quickly Puts Astonishing Strength and Energy into the Veins of Men and Brings Roses to the Cheeks of Nervous, Run-Down Women.

Ask the first hundred strong, healthy people you meet to what they owe their strength and see how many reply "Nuxated Iron." Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.), New York, and the Westchester County Hospital, says: "Thousands of people suffer from iron deficiency but do not know what to take. There is nothing like organic iron—Nuxated Iron, to enrich the blood, make beautiful, healthy women, and strong, vigorous iron men. To make absolutely sure that my patients get real organic iron and not some form of the metallic variety, I always prescribe Nuxated Iron in its original packages. Nuxated Iron will increase the strength and endurance of weak, nervous, run-down folks in two weeks' time in many instances."

Manufacturers' Note: Nuxated Iron recommended by Dr. Sullivan can be obtained from any good druggist with or without a physician's prescription on an absolute manufacturers' guarantee of success or money refunded.
